

Interview Questions

for Sharon L. Fawcett, author of Hope for Wholeness:
The Spiritual Path to Freedom from Depression

- In HOPE FOR WHOLENESS, you combine solid advice for helping others find freedom from depression with your own story. What was your experience with depression like?
- Aren't you concerned about others looking down on you because you've had a mental illness?
- In HOPE FOR WHOLENESS you devote an entire chapter to how depression, and suffering, can be good for people. How was it good for you?
- What would you say to those who claim that godly people (or Christ followers) should not get depression, or that depression is evidence of sin in someone's life?
- How can spiritual issues contribute to a medical illness like depression?
- What were the spiritual roots of your depression?
- What spiritual treatments brought healing?
- If someone knows a person with depression, what is the best way he/she can support that person?
- What would you most like people with depression to know?
- Where can people learn more about HOPE FOR WHOLENESS, and purchase your book?
